Fishing

There is a daily (€11) or weekly (€33) fishing pass, valid all year round. The base will tell you where to buy it. Depending on the region the holiday licence is available outside these times, too. Otherwise, an annual license is necessary, which is much more expansive. Your departure base will inform you. Fishing with a dragnet is forbidden, and you should observe the regulations over minimum catch size (Pike = 60 cm / Sander = 50 cm / Trout = 23 cm).

Advice for navigation

In France, the right to use the waterways and locks is included in the hiring price. There are some opening bridges that are only open at certain times (e.g., the bridge at Frontignan on the Canal du Rhône à Sète), others are only open on request and some that you manoeuvre yourself. You will find all these details in the guide map as well as in the boat's log book.

Navigation on the Etang de Thau is forbidden if the wind is stronger than Force 3 Beaufort (12-19 km/h or 8-11 knots). The staff at the base will give you all the necessary information. Depending on the regions, the locks are closed on certain bank holidays such as May 1st, 14th July and November 1st. However, there are numerous exceptions, which you can find in the base information on the following pages.
